

Gallese

THE NATURAL RIGHTS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

1. THE RIGHTS TO BE IDLE

to live moments of time not planned by adults

2. THE RIGHTS TO DIRTY ONESELF

to play with the sand, earth, grass, leaves, water, stones and little branches

3. THE RIGHTS TO ODOUR'S

to perceive the tastes of odour's, and to recognize natural perfumes offered by nature

4. THE RIGHTS TO DIALOGUE

to listen, and be able to take words, to intervene and make conversation

5. THE RIGHTS TO USE THE HANDS

to drive nails into wood, to saw and to file, to clean, to glue, to mould clay, to tie ropes and light a fire

6. THE RIGHTS TO A GOOD START

to eat healthy foods from birth, to drink clean water, and to breathe in air that's pure

7. THE RIGHTS OF THE ROADS

to play freely in the square, and to walk the streets

8. THE RIGHTS OF THE WILD

to build a shelter-to play games in the woods, to play hide and seek within the reeds, and have trees to climb

9. THE RIGHTS OF SILENCE

to listen to the puffs of the wind, birds in song, and the gurgles of the water

10. THE RIGHTS OF SHADE

to see the rise of the sun and the sunset, and to admire the nights, the moon and the stars